The Clery Act

Choosing a postsecondary institution is a major decision for students and their families. Along with academic, financial and geographic considerations, the issue of campus safety is a growing concern. The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) is a federal mandate requiring all institutions of higher education that participate in the federal student financial aid program to disclose information about crime on their campuses and in the surrounding communities. The Clery Act affects virtually all public and private higher education institutions and is enforced by the Department of Education. Campuses that fail to comply with the act can be penalized with large fines and may be suspended from participating in the federal financial aid program.

The Clery Act, formerly known as the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act, was signed in 1990 and is named after 19-year-old Jeanne Clery, who was raped and murdered in her Lehigh University residence hall in 1986. Clery's parents lobbied Congress to enact the law when they discovered students at Lehigh hadn't been notified about 38 violent crimes that had occurred on campus in the three years prior to Clery's murder.

Compliance with the Clery Act

The Clery Act Global Tech College to provide timely warnings of crimes that represent a threat to the safety of students or employees and to make their campus security policies available to the public. The act also requires GTC to collect, report and disseminate crime data to everyone on-campus and to the Department of Education annually. To be in full compliance with the law, GTC must do the following:

1. Publish and distribute an Annual Security Report to the current and prospective students and employees by October 1st of each year.
2. GTC must also keep and make available to the public a detailed crime log of all crimes reported to them in the past 60 days.
3. Keep the past three years of crime statistics detailing crimes that have occurred: on-campus and in public areas on or near campus. GTC must also report liquor and drug law violations and illegal weapons possession if they result in a disciplinary referral or arrest.
4. Disclose missing student notification procedures that pertain to students residing in any on-campus student housing facilities (not applicable to GTC).
5. Disclose fire safety information related to any on-campus student housing facilities (not applicable to GTC). This includes maintaining a fire log that is open to public inspection and publishing the fire statistics in the Annual Safety Report.
6. Submit the collected crime and fire statistics to the Department of Education each fall.

Accurate and Timely Reporting of Criminal Offenses

Prompt and accurate reporting of criminal offenses aids in providing a timely response and timely warning notices to the community when appropriate and assists in compiling accurate crime statistics. Community members, students, faculty, and guests are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety related incidents in an accurate and timely manner to any campus staff member.

How to be an Active Bystander

Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it. We want to promote a culture of community accountability where bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. We may not always know what to do even if we want to help. Below is a list of some ways to be an active bystander.

1. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 911. This could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive towards another, and it is not safe for you to interrupt.
2. Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.
3. Confront people who seclude, hit on, or try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.
4. Speak up when someone discussed plans to take advantage of another person.
5. Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience stalking.
6. Refer people to on campus resources listed in this document for support in health or counseling.
